

A MOTHER'S DECLARATION

When Virtue Flows, Submission Carries Power

PROVERBS 31 • MARK 5:25-34

I DECLARE that I am a woman submitted to God.

I am not defined by pressure, weariness, appearance, mistakes, or the expectations of this world. I am clothed with strength and honor. My value is not in what fades, but in the virtue, character, and power of God flowing through me.

I DECLARE that I am a Proverbs 31 woman who is continuously being transformed by the renewing of my mind. My life is aligned with the Kingdom of God. My home is blessed. My children rise up and call me blessed. Wisdom is in my mouth, kindness is on my tongue, and strength is in my hands.

I DECLARE that I do not mother from emptiness. I do not pour out without being filled. I do not strive in my own strength. I surrender to God, and His power flows through me.

LIKE THE WOMAN WITH THE ISSUE OF BLOOD, I press past shame, exhaustion, rejection, and disappointment. I reach for Jesus by faith. I believe that the Holy Spirit restores what has been drained, heals what has been wounded, and strengthens what has been weak.

I DECLARE that virtue flows in my life. The power of the Holy Spirit is at work in me. The same power that raised Jesus from the dead lives in me. I am not just surviving motherhood; I am carrying God's grace, wisdom, and strength.

I DECLARE that my submission to God is not weakness. It is the place where power is released. As I yield to Him, I become a living conduit of His love, peace, authority, and presence in my home.

I DECREE that my home is covered. My children are covered. My family is covered. My mind is covered. My heart is covered. My purpose is covered.

I REJECT fear, striving, guilt, comparison, and condemnation. I receive grace, wisdom, strength, rest, and divine power.

TODAY, I do not just admire the virtuous woman. By the grace of God, I have become her.

WHEN VIRTUE FLOWS, SUBMISSION CARRIES POWER.
And because I am submitted to God, I do not operate in effort alone. I operate in the power of the Holy Spirit.

In Jesus' Name, Amen!
