

EMPOWER HER • LEGAL

Event Terms & Conditions

Effective Date: October 9, 2026

Last Updated: October 9, 2026

Purpose and Application

This policy applies to registration for conferences, workshops, ministry gatherings, and other events organized by Empower Her. It is intended to remain in effect for future events unless updated. Any event-specific terms clearly disclosed before purchase will also apply. Applicable law controls if any provision conflicts with a legal requirement.

Registration and Confirmation

Registration is confirmed after the required registration information has been submitted and any applicable payment has been accepted. Please provide accurate contact information so we can send confirmations and important event updates. Tickets are subject to availability.

Prices and Payment

Ticket prices, early-registration deadlines, admission inclusions, and mandatory charges will be disclosed before purchase. Any mandatory fees will be included in the displayed total price where required by applicable law. Optional purchases will be identified separately. Payments may be processed by third-party providers.

Attendee Cancellations and Refunds

For paid events, attendees may request a full refund of the ticket purchase price when Empower Her receives a cancellation request by 11:59 p.m. Mountain Time on the calendar date that is thirty (30) days before the event start date. Any required refund of mandatory fees will also be provided in accordance with applicable law. Requests received after that deadline and no-shows are generally nonrefundable, except where required by law or otherwise approved by Empower Her.

Cancellations received fewer than thirty (30) calendar days before the event are generally nonrefundable, except where required by applicable law or otherwise approved by Empower Her. No-shows are generally nonrefundable, subject to applicable law.

To request a cancellation or refund, email info@empower-herministry.org with the event name, attendee name, and email used at registration. Refunds will ordinarily be returned to the original payment method.

Ticket Transfers

Attendees may request an administrative ticket-name change or transfer to another eligible attendee at least seventy-two (72) hours before the published event start time. Such requests must be confirmed by Empower Her. This administrative deadline does not restrict any ticket resale or transfer rights protected by applicable law.

Cancellation or Postponement by Empower Her

If Empower Her cancels a paid event, ticket holders will receive a full refund of the ticket price paid, subject to any greater rights under applicable law. If an event is postponed, we will notify ticket holders of the revised date and provide the refund or other options required by applicable law.

Reasonable changes to speakers, schedules, or programming do not automatically constitute event cancellation. Any legally required remedy remains available.

Travel, Lodging, and Other Expenses

Unless expressly stated otherwise, event admission does not include personal travel, lodging, transportation, childcare, or separately purchased merchandise. Empower Her is not responsible for independently booked expenses except where applicable law provides otherwise.

Meals and Accessibility

Each event registration page will identify whether meals are included in admission, as well as any meal-related terms. Attendees should notify Empower Her as early as possible about dietary or accessibility needs so reasonable arrangements can be discussed. Specific menu items cannot be guaranteed.

Free Events

Free event registration may be subject to capacity limits. If unable to attend, please cancel promptly so another person may participate. No ticket refund is associated with a free registration.

Event Conduct and Third-Party Services

Attendees must follow reasonable event and venue safety rules. Third-party venues, ticketing providers, hotels, and other service providers may have separate terms governing services they provide directly.

Policy Updates

Empower Her may revise this policy for future registrations. Material changes will not retroactively reduce rights that applied to a completed purchase where prohibited by law. The Last Updated date identifies the current version.
